

Harvard Reference Style Guide

Introduction

Notes: Please ‘copy’ the title of a book, an article or whatever (as far as the spelling of words such as ‘behaviour’ or ‘behavioural’ are concerned (and this also goes for direct quotations) exactly as in the original:

- When referring to any work that is NOT a journal, such as a book, article, or Web page, capitalise only the first letter of the first word of a title and subtitle, the first word after a colon or a dash in the title, and proper nouns. Do not capitalise the first letter of the second word in a hyphenated compound word.
- Capitalise all major words in journal titles, full names for journal titles, not abbreviations.
- If within the same paragraph, reference is made to the same author(s) for a second and further time(s), the year of publication is omitted in the second and further references – as long as it does not lead to confusion
- Always cite page numbers within in-text citation – even if paraphrasing – example: Hallinan (2000:66)

Multiple publications; same author:

- Same author; different years
Normal conventions (author, year, title, etc).
- Same author; same year
More than one reference by an author in the same year: these are distinguished in order of publication using a lower-case alphabetical suffix after the year of publication (e.g. 1988a, 1988b, 1988c, etc). The same suffix is used to distinguish that reference for the in-text citations.

Order of Listing

The List of References is ordered alphabetically by primary authors' surnames.

- Multiple authors.
 - Use the sequence of authors' surnames exactly as given in the publication. The primary author, i.e., major contributor, is listed first by the publisher.
- Same author:
 - different years: list the author's references chronologically, starting with the earliest date.
 - same year: use an alphabetical suffix (e.g. 1983a, 1983b).

If you are going to use the abbreviation for USA state names then please make sure the abbreviation is correct, for example:

- Doss, G., 2003, IS project management handbook, Prentice Hall, Upper Saddle River, NJ. (No full stops between the abbreviations).
